Magee Resource Group, founded in 1991, will take home one of six Top Businesses of the Year awards from the J. Pat Beard Industry & Top Businesses of the Year Awards Luncheon, having established itself as one of the top single-office search firms in the world.

"We're extremely excited and honored," said Terry Petzoid, managing partner of MRG's IT Division.

MRG is home to award-winning professional recruiters dedicated to helping their clients grow by introducing them to the right people.

"We've worked predominantly outside of Louisiana for the last 27 years until just the last couple of years," Petzoid said.

To best serve their clients, MRG has built narrow-focus health-care leadership recruiting teams to specialize in specific service lines: cardiovascular and oncology. This allows team members to develop relationships with key leadership professionals in those programs, and to understand the intricacies necessary to locate, qualify and present only those few professionals who will best suit the position at hand.

"Those specialties have been very successful for us," Petzoid said. "As you sub-specialize in those kinds of practices, you get to know everyone, and it allows us to place key leaders across the nation in both permanent roles and interim roles."

MRG's other division is technology, which has been in place since 1999.

"We specialized in an area called SAP (systems, applications, products), which is a major software platform that Fortune 500 companies globally roll out across the U.S.," he said.

"A couple of years ago, we started to have more of a presence in Shreveport and Bossier City with some of these companies that need technology experts or technology companies that needed to expand their work force," he said. "We are able to offer the entire recruitment process."

Top Businesses of the Year awards are nominated, and winners must have strong core values and show how they contribute to the community. MRG does so in the following ways:

- To honor God in all we do.
- To help in the development of our employees – our most important assets.
- To serve our customers with a spirit of excellence.
- To invest in our community with a spirit of charity.
- To ensure MRG remains a profitable business.
